

CAPITVLVM VICESIMVM TERTIVM

PENSVM D

- 1.2 What are the present and perfect stems of advēnit?
- 1.7 What are the present, perfect, and supine stems of misit?
- 1.55 What are the present, perfect, and supine stems of fecit? What conjugation? How does it differ from another verb of the same conjugation, like ducere duxisse ductum?
- 1.79 What case is me and why?
- 1.82 What case is facti sui and why?
- 1.85 What part of speech is futurus sum? Tense and voice? Conjugate it. Distinguish it from the regular future and the future infinitive.
- 1.90 What are the tense, voice, and mood of futurum esse? Why this mood?
- 1.106 What part of speech is euntem? What are the characteristics (i.e. case, number, etc.) of euntem? Decline it.
- 1.107 What part of speech is redeuntem? Tense and voice? Decline it.
- 1.114 What is the syntax of verberatum?
- 1.114-115 What are the tense, voice, and mood of verberatum iri? Why this mood? Compare this with the present active/passive, the perfect active/passive, and the future active/passive of this mood.
- 1.118 Compare mutatum esse with mutatum iri.
- 1.125 What part of speech is scripturus sum? Tense and voice? Conjugate it. Distinguish it from the regular future and the future infinitive.
- 1.126 What are the tense, voice, and mood of scripturum esse? Why this mood?
- 1.130 What are the present, perfect, and supine stems of tradidit?