

CAPITVLVM QVINQVAGESIMVM QVARTVM

PENSVM D

Il.23-31 What are the tense, voice, and mood of agitur/aguntur? What is the best translation of this word in this context?

Il.29-31 What are the tense and voice of cōsulendum? What part of speech? What case is quibus and why? What is the best translation of the clause quibus...est cōsulendum in this context?

l.126 What are the tense, voice, and mood of agātur? Why this mood? What is the subject of agātur? What is the best translation of cum dē māximīs vectīgālibus agātur?

Il.289-290 What rhetorical device does Cicero employ in these lines (Quis igitur...dēbuit?)

Il.292-293 What are the case, number, and gender of extrēmā pueritiā? Why this case? What is the best translation of this phrase? Translate “it is the first part”, “it is the middle part”, and “it is the last part” into Latin.

l.294 What are the case, number, and gender of ineunte adulēscentiā? Why this case? What is the best translation of this phrase? What is another way that Cicero could have said this?

Il.372-373 What are the case, number, and gender of extrēmā hieme? Why this case? What is the best translation of this phrase? What are the case, number, and gender of ineunte vēre? Why this case? What is another way Cicero could have said ineunte vēre?