

CAPITVLVM NONVM

PENSVM D

11.3 What are the case, number, and gender of ovis? To what declension/noun family does it belong?

1.3 Decline ovis.

1.5 What are the case, number, and gender of pastor? To what declension does it belong?

1.5 Decline pastor.

11.3,5 Distinguish between the declensions of ovis and pastor.

11.1,3 How do you determine the gender of 3rd declension nouns like pastor and ovis?

1.11 Distinguish between est and ēst.

1.25 What case does the preposition supra take?

1.30 What case does the preposition sub take when it shows a location (i.e. “is under”)? What case does it take when it shows motion (i.e. “going under”)?

11.39,69 What are two common translations of the temporal conjunction dum?

1.55 What part of speech is ipse -a -um and how do you translate it?

1.55 Decline ipse in the masculine/singular.

1.65 What are the singular and plural imperative forms of ducere (“to lead”)? What other verbs have this shortened imperative?

1.75 What happens to the preposition ad when added as a prefix to the verb currit? What is this change in spelling called?